Intense Heat and Smoke Drive Firemen Back-Clerks and Stenographers in Panic When Ordered Out of Menaced Buildings.

STANDPIPES USED TO STOP SWEEP OF THE FLAMES

A fire of amazing swiftness, which destroyed two paper warehouses n Beekman Street just east of Nassau Street and scorched two skycrapers, gave all of New York within half a mile of the City Hall plenty i spectacular thrills just before 2 o'clock to-day.

Flames in the warehouse of the Bishop Paper Company and Lasher Lathrop Paper Company, at No. 16 Beekman Street, spread through he building in a flash. When firemen from the nearest company in John Street, three blocks away, reached the place great sheets of deep red flame were roaring from the upper windows and dense smoke of burning paper rolled out below. In three minutes every window was sending out spurts of flame ten, twenty and thirty feet into the street and the heat drove the firemen back, so that the streams from the hose fell short. Three additional alarms were quickly sounded,
